Series of Accidents—Two Men Afflicted with Paralysis—Other News Notes and Personals.

George Ward, of Lincoln Heights, and John Davis, of 312 Tenth street, were quite seriously injured in a runaway near Hewitt's fertilizing works yesterday morning.

The men were standing on a wagon, loading some stuff on a car, when the horses became frightened and started to run up the lane. The suddenness with which the horses started threw the men to the ground. Several men employed at the works went to their assistance and also summoned a physician, who gave them relief and then ordered them taken to their homes.

Ward was found to have a broken arm and Davis a long cut over the eye, which required several stitches to close.

Three More Accidents.
Thomas Donnelly, of 814 South Main avenue, was quite seriously injured in the Lackawanna railroad yards Saturday.

He was struck by a rapidly-moving train and thrown to the ground. Men working nearby removed him to his home, where Dr. Conroy was called to attend him. Although resting quite easy, yet he is in considerable pain.

John Moffatt, of Emmet street, who was so badly injured in the Lackawanna yards on Thursday, while attempting to board a passing train, is still at the Lackawanna hospital suffering from severe internal and external injuries.

Miss Trainor and a friend had been enjoying a carriage ride, and in returning from the central city, about 9 o'clock, the carriage was struck by a Bellevue-Stone avenue car at South Seventh street. The buggy was smashed and Miss Trainor and her companion were thrown to the street with much force.

The woman was removed to a home at Dr. Walker called in attendance, who found her to be suffering from injuries on the head and right side. She is confined to her bed and no one but the nurse and physician are allowed to see her.

Suffered a Paralytic Stroke.
Eliaser Jenkins, deacon of the Tabernacle congregational church, suffered a paralytic stroke on Sunday morning while attending services at the above church. As the result of the stroke, he is lying at his home in a precarious condition.

Mr. Jenkins had just arisen to take up the usual morning offering, and after taking two or three steps, fell to the floor, striking his head against a pew. Several men seated near him ran to his assistance and summoned Dr. J. J. Roberts, who afforded temporary relief and then went with him to his home on Thirteenth street.

Late last evening, Mr. Jenkins' condition was serious. His entire left side is paralyzed.

OBITUARY.
MRS. MARY D. WILMORE died Friday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John S. Loucks, of West Mountain. The deceased was aged 65 years and had been a resident of the West Side nearly all her life. About 8 months ago she was stricken with a fatal illness and was removed from her home on Chestnut street to that of her daughter, where, during her long illness, she was tenderly cared for until death relieved her suffering. Mrs. Wilmore was a faithful member of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church for a great many years. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. John S. Loucks, Charles, Lewis and Clark Wilmore. The remains are now at the family residence, on Chestnut street, and can be viewed by friends between the hours of 11 a. m. and 1 p. m. today. Funeral will take place at 2 o'clock, with services at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church.

CHRISTIAN ZEIDLER died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Schellhase, of 309 Larch street. Mr. Zeidler was born in Bavaria, Nov. 29, 1835, and came to this city over forty years ago. For a number of years he conducted a hotel at Nay Aug avenue and Green Ridge street, which was popularly known as "Uncle Chris'" place. He was a man of strong but genial personality, and his hotel was for years the favorite meeting place for many of the older residents of the city. Some years ago Mr. Zeidler gave up the hotel business, and has since lived a retired life. He was a brother of the late John and Lawrence Zeidler, and is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Henry Schellhase, Mrs. Mary Tienkin and Mrs. Annie Hansen. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 from the Schellhase residence on Larch street.

SUN IS SELDOM ON TIME.
Four Days When Old Sol Is Not Too Early or Too Late.
From the March Ladies' Home Journal.
The sun does not keep good time. He is almost always too fast or too slow. Once about the middle of April he is just on time, then not again before the middle of June. At the beginning of September he joins the clock a third time, and lastly once more late in December. Now it would seem as if he were started at the way he had neglected in February he fell back until he was fifteen minutes late. By the beginning of March he had made up five minutes of his loss, and before the month is over he will have caught up to within five minutes of the schedule. Meanwhile the days have been growing longer very rapidly. We begin March with our nights longer than our days. We end it with our days longer than our nights. In one month we have added to the length of our day an hour and twenty minutes, a bigger gain than any other month can show.
